

We talk of how schools, government, TV, Hollywood, religion, etc. etc. is brainwashing our kids. The reality is that it's the sick and twisted news media and the greedy advertizing industry that forms the thinking of the majority of Americans young and old. The proof of this is in what we do or don't spend our money on, who we vote for and what we donate to. I.E. There is more money donated to save dogs than babies.

As a father I refused to participate in any of it for my childrens sake. My son never had a G.I. Joe, He Man, or Skeletor figure nor did my daughter ever have a Barbie or Ken Doll. Micah only had things that encouraged outside activities such as a BMX bike or roller blades and Angel things that encouraged relationships such as her life size baby doll Anna Love that was so realistic people freaked when they saw her with it. She still had it on her bed the day she died.

Anyway, the reason I'm even writing this tract is to drive home a point...

The Kingdom of GOD is not Burger King nor any semblence thereof. For most of Western organized religion God has been reduced to no more than an errand boy existing only to do their bidding when they deem it convenient. Much of the "FAITH" movement, and the Blab it and Grab it theology that came out of it, was no more than Burger King ideoligy made into modern theology.

Let's get one thing straight. GOD, "IS GOD" !!! He does what HE wants, when HE wants, the way HE wants and could care less if you approve or agree. His kingdom is NOT some democracy (OUCH) incumbered by political correctness or ANY OTHER HUMANISTIC IDEOLOGY. The citizens of this Kingdom do not have the right or privelage to vote on anything He says or does. HE is not even remotely concerned if HE fits into your feeble, limited, misguided theological box. For NO box can contain HIM! Any real student of scripture intimate with their Heavenly Father, totally understands this. Those not intimate, or who love to have their ears tickled, DO NOT.

Although I don't fully understand it I truly love, admire and respect the Jewish perspective of being so awe struck by "who God is" that they don't even speak His Name. I'm actually trying to rap my head around this in my own life. What do they know that we don't?

From Genesis to Revelation scripture is clear about this one thing yet we, in our great wisdom, have somehow reduced Him to a servant's status. We obey Him when it's convenient or to our advantage and explain away what we don't like or disagree with. Now before you go pointing fingers first ask yourself "where do I do this?" because you do do this. I do this! WHY??? Two reasons but only one can change us. The first is we don't REVERANCE HIM. But then fear didn't work for the first few thousand years so why should it now? The second and most important is we do not understand HIS LOVE, OR WHAT HE DID FOR US ON THE CROSS.
