

OKAY, the challenge is on, you may react or respond. 1. One reaction would be to feel condemned or threatened or possibly even made unsure of your salvation. It is never my intent to make anyone feel any of these. But if this is you, maybe you should examine yourself to see if you are truly in “the faith”. II Cor. 13:5 For if you are truly “His”, and you understand what that means, nothing I could ever do or say would be able to threaten that relationship. 2. You could also just blow me off, discarding that which you neither understand nor have experienced. Keep in mind that if I am right it is you, not I, that has so much to lose. Meanwhile my faith remains solid and fruitful regardless of your response. 3. Or you could respond wisely and use this information to challenge all the you have been taught and hold dear and (as the Berean’s did in (Acts 17:10-11)) reexamine your theology and see if what I say is true, that you may experience God to an even greater degree. Scripture is clear, it is YOU that is to study the scriptures (not your pastor) to know what YOU should believe that YOU wont be put to shame. (II Tim. 2:15)

Please, do not confer with “flesh and blood”, (Gal. 1:15-17) yours or another’s, it will only rob you or lead you astray. Had I done so numerous times in my life I would not have many of the incredible testimonies displaying God’s awesome love and power that I have today. Even the most well meaning pastors and spiritual leaders, who do not understand experientially or even theologically what I am saying, would have deterred me from knowing God as I do today. If you really “KNOW GOD”, trust Him to lead you into all truth (Jn. 16:13) and then firmly stand on His Word and let Him prove ALL OTHERS wrong. (Ro. 1:3-4) His Word is true and faithful (Ps. 119:138) even when we are not. He is more than capable of defending His reputation. All you have to do is

BELIEVE, and then RECEIVE.

Do NOT let the unbelief of others rob YOU of all that GOD wants to give you.

About us.

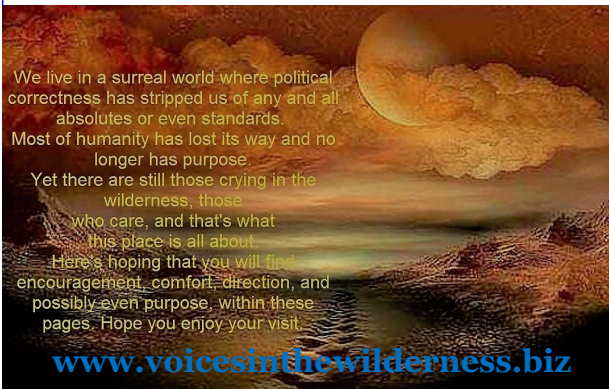

My wife Bonnie and I (E.J.) are just two people who sincerely love our Heavenly Father, (creator of “ALL” things) His Son Jesus Christ, (who died for our sins) and the Holy Spirit. (who has so graciously come to live inside us.)

This being the case we, like Paul, are compelled by Christ’s love to share what God has done for us. (II Cor. 5:14) For we are NOT ashamed of the (full) gospel of Christ for it is the power of God to salvation for everyone who believes, for the Jew first and also for the Greek. (Ro. 1:16)

We belong to a church in Las Vegas pastored by Mike Welte, yet we serve the Body of Christ at large across all denominations. We live full time in a 38’ motorhome roaming North America gently sharing our faith and the love of God with those who are open to receive it. We have NO ulterior motives and the only support we seek from others is prayer. God is our provision on all counts.

SPIRIT, SOUL AND BODY.

Above is one artist’s rendition of what the New Jerusalem may look like. Now don’t go get’n yer panties in a bunch, no one knows what it’ll look like, but hey, he’s a visionary.

God “told” Abraham to leave everything, home, kinsmen, affluent lifestyle, vocation, inheritance, “EVERYTHING”, and search for a city who’s maker and builder was God Himself. Hmm, a man “hears” God? Yaa, as if that didn’t make him look like some kind of nut case. Yet he set out determined to do exactly what God had “said” to him.

He was a visionary. Today many would say of him that he was so “heavenly minded” that he was no “earthly good.” This was NOT God’s opinion, and he obviously didn’t care about anyone else’s.

Abraham was NOT of this WORLD and he knew it, his “citizenship” was NOT on planet earth. The eleventh chapter of the book of Hebrews gives us a long list of those who were willing to be called weird, illogical, irrational, radical, even crazy or as if from another world; read it, ponder it, absorb it. Please take note that this is commonly called the “hall of faith”; it’s a list of those who pleased God. For without faith, it is IMPOSSIBLE to please God. Heb.11:6. To be a person of faith is to be visionary. To even grasp what that means requires you to understand your citizenship. For you WILL NOT SEE what you are not looking for. Most believers “SAY” they are citizens of the Kingdom of God but have little understanding as to what that means. How does it translate into daily life? What I’m about to say will challenge every logical fiber
